Lines Written at Point Lookout after Hearing of Gen. Lee's Surrender.

Potomac! oh, Potomac! I am standing on thy shore,
Thy waters watching slowly as they pass to come no more,
And I think of faded glories that have passed with the years,—
Years that have flown forever,—and my heart it melts in tears.

Upon thy flowing borders, close by thy rocky bed,
Heroic blood has gushed forth, as true patriots ever shed.
There from old North Carolina, with her thousand others brave,
An Anderson, a Pettigrew and Branch their life-blood gave.*

I crossed thy clear blue waters last, up 'neath the mountain's shade,
Where thy flowing was so shallow no useless bridge was laid;
"Blue bonnets o'er the dorder" was the order of the day;
The cross was glaring brightly and men eager for the fray.

That was our noblest army, and our hearts were filled with pride;
Alas! for who have fallen,—can it be they've vainly died?
But then no ill forebodings would have dared our bosoms fill,
For Lee, the peerless, led us, with our Long-street, Ewell, Hill.

Two years have passed almost since then, while I've in prison pined,
And hopes that then I cherished, Fate says must be resigned.
Here where thy waters lost are, with the waves of Chesapeake, †
I hear the cry "surrendered," and the crimson dyes my cheek.

Potomac! oh, Potomac! ye who well have known the cost,
Is there no hand to save us or to give us back our lost?
My heart is yearning sadly, as I stand upon thy shore,
For the ship that sailed so bravely, now wrecked on Nevermore!

*Gen. B. was killed and Gens. A. and P. received their death wounds on the banks of the Potomac.

†Point Lookout is at the mouth of the Potomac, where it falls into the Chesapeake.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1866. NO. 286.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

Friday Evening, July 13, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
No Further Amendments.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Meeting in Wake.

We are authorized to state that a meeting of the citizens of Wake County will be held at the Court House, in this city, on Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of making arrangements to secure representation from this Congressional District in the approaching National Convention at Philadelphia.

The Amended Constitution.

In reference to members of the General Assembly there are two very important amendments. The first is, that each member of the Senate and House shall make oath, before taking his seat, that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, he is qualified under the Constitution of the State to take his seat. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor, elect, are likewise required to take a similar oath.

The requirements of the Constitution in this respect have been repeatedly violated, either from inattention, or indifference, it not on partizan grounds. A man must have a loose idea of moral responsibility, who will swear to support and defend the Constitution, when he knows that he is morally and legally unfit for the position. The amendment is a good one, and it is hoped will exert a salutary influence.

Another amendment, which we deem highly important to the preservation of the consistency and integrity of the General Assembly, is the clause which reads thus: "No member of the Senate or of the House of Commons shall be eligible to any office within the gift of the General Assembly, during the time for which he may be elected."

There are solid objections to this clause, yet the great evil which it seeks to cure is a growing one, and its cure would overbalance the good to be gained by letting the old rule remain. If we are to judge from the facts, nothing has become more common, than if a man desires to secure a lucrative or honorable office, he seeks to be a member of the General Assembly, as the most certain road to success. This, of course, is not universal, but the result must ultimately be, that the Legislature will become a body of office seekers, and this would lead to collusion and corruption. It moreover establishes a caste for office and even now is fast establishing the rule, that offices within the gift of the General Assembly must be filled by a certain class. Yet it must be perceived, that instances will occur, in which the Legislature will find itself seriously straitened by rigidly carrying out the law. Perhaps experience will prove the necessity of modifying the clause; if not, its effect must be good upon the future history of the General Assembly.

The only change in the Executive Department, is the clause fixing the office of Lieutenant Governor and conforming the Constitution thereto. We regard this as a good provision, simplifying our system and defining more fully the duties of the Presiding Officer of the Senate. It meets also that growing sentiment that whoever fills or may fill, ex officio, the office of Governor, should be the immediate choice of the people. Under the old regime, matters worked well, but the common desire to popularize the higher offices of the State may in this case be gratified without detriment.

Several very important changes and modifications of the old Constitution have been made in the judicial department. Our entire Court system has been established and ordained by constitutional enactment, and not left as heretofore at the will of the Legislature. This, perhaps, is, instrinically, the most important and the most valuable amendment contained in the amended Constitution. Without law, government is a myth, and without a stable and well defined judicial system, laws are of no value. Both in our national and State governments, the judiciary has always been regarded as a co-ordinate branch of the government, possessing, in its sphere, powers which demand the obedience as well of the executive and legislative departments, as of the people. To leave the judiciary, therefore, at the will of the Legislature, to set up or put down as it may determine, is an anomaly in the American system. How it came to pass, that it has been left to this late day, to place the judicial department of the government of North Carolina in its proper position, is unaccountable. The necessity for it, however, has never been so apparent and imperious as at the present day. The Convention, however, was so imbued with the spirit of ordinary legislation, that it must needs fix the place of holding the Supreme Court, besides entering very fully into other minutiæ connected with our Court system, which might very properly have been left to the discretion of the Legislature.

The amended Constitution requires the election of justices of the Peace by the people.—The section is as follows:

"SEC. 11. Justices of the Peace shall be elected by the qualified voters for members of the General Assembly, and shall hold their office for six years. The number shall not exceed two for every thousand of the population according to the census next preceding the election, but the General Assembly may allow three additional Justices for each county-seat, and incorporated towns: Provided, Said incorporated town, being other than that in which the county-seat is located, shall contain three hundred inhabitants. The General Assembly shall provide for districting the several counties, and the Justices shall reside in their respective districts; and there shall be a separate election for each district. The next General Assembly shall enact the necessary laws to carry into effect the provisions of this section; and at the first County Court after the election, the term of office of the present Justices shall expire. The General Assembly may provide for the election of Justices to fill vacancies."

This amendment has been opposed as anti-conservative and liable to serious objection.—It is possible that a safer or better mode of selecting the Magistracy might be devised even than this, but in our judgment the proposed plan is far better than the former one. In the hands of the Legislature it has become a nuisance, both as to the quantity and quality of the Magistrates, while among so many there are many of the best men among us. While the amended Constitution leaves the matter to the people, it is sufficiently guarded.

What we have to say further upon the Constitution must be reserved to another day.

Gov. Worth and Gen. Ransom.

We have heretofore purposely avoided any allusion, editorially, to the efforts made to bring out Gen. Ransom for the office of Governor, in opposition to Gov. Worth. We should still preserve silence, but for the development of certain facts, which Gen. Ransom and the public ought to know. For him, personally, we have a high respect, and his gallantry and success during the war command our highest admiration.

If, therefore, there are those in the State who prefer Gen. Ransom for Governor at this period, who think it judicious to divide the friends of President Johnson and thus risk the triumph of Radical principles in the State, and are willing to promote the agitation and discussion of old issues and the revival of old party prejudices, they are of age and have the right to do so.—We should regret such a step deeply, but such a course could not alter our convictions of what is due to Gov. Worth from the liberal minded men of the State, nor change our views of the impolicy of such a proceeding, in the present aspect of our national affairs. We shall certainly, in any event, support Gov. Worth, with all the ability we possess.

In this connection, however, it is due to Gen. Ransom and to Gen. Vance to correct the following remark of the Salisbury Banner:

"We hope the friends of Generals Ransom and Vance will not force a contest upon the State at this time."

We have the best of reasons for believing, that Gen. Ransom has given no encouragement to any attempt at springing a contest in the State, by allowing the use of his name.—We do not doubt that Gen. Ransom will refuse the use of his name, whenever it becomes proper to do so, by peremptorily declining.

We presume we can say as much for Gen. Vance.

Now for the facts which we alluded to above: There are thousands of Confederate soldiers in the State, who will hail with pleasure the arrival of the day, when they can with propriety, and without injury to the gallant officers who led them in the late war, give the substantial evidences of their esteem; and such gallant men as Ransom, Vance, and hosts of others, we trust, will live to receive from those brave men the palpable evidences of their high appreciation. But the excessive anxiety to bring out opposition to Gov. Worth does not come so much from that quarter. Are the people of the State aware that most of this feverish zeal, to bring out a friend of Constitutional Union and supporter of President Johnson to oppose Gov. Worth, originated with and is promoted by inveterate Holdenites and Radicals? Do they not know, that during the Convention, prominent Democrats of that body were approached repeatedly by Holdenites or Radicals, with the proposition that they would unite with them in the support of any man they might name, (whether original secessionist or otherwise, would make no difference,) to oppose Gov. Worth? This proposition was sometimes coupled with the proviso to put Mr. Dick or some other friend of theirs on the ticket, for Lieutenant Governor. We have positive evidence of this fact. Some of the gentlemen who were thus approached, informed us of it, and their veracity is unquestioned and unquestionable. But these Holdenites barked up the wrong trees. These gentlemen spurned the proposition with scorn.

Why a gentleman can scarcely step off the trains, but there are Holdenites to ply him with questions of this sort: "How will —— run for Governor in ——?" "He will run tremendously throughout this section." "Of course he will do well in ——."

Recently a nomination of Gen. Ransom for Governor and Gen. R. B. Vance for Lieut. Governor, signed "an old Line Whig," appeared in the Wilmington Journal. We would not be afraid to risk a wager on it, if we were betting men, that the proposition came from a Holdenite, though, perhaps, communicated in such a way as to mislead our friend of the Journal.

How can these Holdenites be sincere, after all their denunciations of secessionists and destructives? Can any one have any confidence in their anxiety and friendship for General Ransom or any representative of the war men of the State? Certainly not. They know their case is hopeless, unless they can divide the Constitutional Union men of the State, and hence their anxiety. Put Gov. Worth, and any other friend of President Johnson, in the field, and no difficulty will be experienced in bringing out a Holden candidate.

U. S. Taxes.

A friend in Washington writes that, upon a renewed examination of the returns in the office of Internal Revenue, he finds that the various officers in North Carolina, charged with the collection of the taxes, collected and deposited, during the year ending June 30th., 1866, the sum of $1,000,662,87! This is besides the direct tax and custom receipts. And a considerable amount of cotton, and other articles, was shipped under bond, and the tax was paid in other States—which amount, also, is not included in the above statement.

And all this wrung from an impoverished people, who are denied representation in Congress,—from the people of a State, "one-half, at least," of whom one of her recreant sons declares should be disfranchised!

"LIVE AND TIMES OF ANDREW JOHNSON, SEVENTEENTH PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, written from a National stand point, by a National man, and published by D. Appleton & Co., New York."

This is the title of a book which we received the other day, and which has been read with much interest and pleasure.

The book is strictly what it professes to be, a history of the life and times of Andrew Johnson, the present President of the United States.—There is no clap trap in it, or special hero-worship. It contains solid material, which deserves to be carfully read an inwardly digested, because, being a faithful and correct history of the life and times of Mr. Johnson, who is at this very moment standing, as a constitutional barrier, (and it is to be hoped an impregnable one,) between civil and religious freedom and rampant radicalism, it concerns the interest and the welfare of every citizen of the country. Let every lover, therefore, of his country, of State rights and civil freedom, get the book and read it. It gives us an account of the early training and character of Mr. Johnson, and of the character and disposition of his father, with a degree of faithfulness and particularity, which, together with some other things in the book, induces us to believe that the "National man," who is the author of it, is a citizen of this State.

But, however this may be, to write the life and times of Andrew Johnson, in such manner as to enable us duly and properly to appreciate the man of will and purpose, and the statesman of uncommon sagacity and ability, that Mr. Johnson unquestionably is, makes it desirable and proper to furnish us with a correct portrait of his youth, and a faithful delineation of the personal attributes of his early and matured manhood, and, also, necessarily involves a pretty rigid analysis of the measures and policy of the General Government and of general politics, for a series of years, pending and during the war, in which Mr. Johnson took an active part. The author has accomplished these objects pleasantly and satisfactorily, with research, accuracy and ability. Amid the sadness and gloom of almost despair which overshadows one section of the country as with a funeral pall, on the one hand, and the fury of fanatical radicalism that threatens to overwhem the Constitution, and to break down and destroy the old landmarks of civil freedom, on the other, Mr. Johnson is presented to us as a devoted friend of the Constitution, and a statesman familiar with the "old paths,"—the good pilot with cool head, unblenching eye and steady hand,—the very Palinurus who can and will guide the ship of State through this tempest of fury and gloom of despair, if every lover of his country will stand by him with the same steadiness and unflinching nerve with which he upholds the Constitution, State rights and civil government.

But it is not our purpose to write a critique of this work, or an eulogy upon Mr. Johnson, but more especially to call attention to the book, and to the following article from the National Intelligencer in regard to it, which, we hope, will, more than anything we can say, induce every one to buy and read it:

LIFE AND TIMES OF ANDREW JOHNSON, as viewed from a National stand-point, by a National man. D. Appleton & Co., 1866.

The above named book is, we think, likely to meet with a very extensive circulation as soon as its merits are discovered by the public. It is one of the cleverest works of biography we have read in a long time. The author seems to have accomplished the object at which, in his preface, he says he aimed—to present President Johnson to the people of the country just as he is, both politically and personally. The incidents of Mr. Johnson's early life, his struggles with poverty and adversity, and his final triumph over all obstacles, are portrayed in a most striking and graphic manner. The writer passes in review Mr. Johnson's political course, giving extracts from his speeches, which, without being tedious in length, are calculated to explain his views and position on the many important questions which divided public opinion during his Congressional life. In each case the author introduces the subject on which the speech was made with a clear and concise statement of the points involved, and follows with appropriate comments as to the merits of the particular question discussed. The volume contains quite a lengthy dissertation on President Johnson's personal character, the prominent traits which he has uniformly exhibited, and the peculiar standpoint from which his official duties are regulated and performed. It reviews the agitating questions growing out of the war and its termination, and especially Mr. Johnson's policy of reconstruction, the author's defence of which is forcible, interesting, and in many instances highly eloquent.

There are portions of the work that possess great beauty, and exhibit an originality of thought and felicity of expression rarely met with in works of this character. The views of the author in regard to the greatness and power of our country, and the hopes and bright prospects of our future, are happily conceived and forcibly expressed. He dwells in fervid and patriotic language upon the march of American civilization, of which he regards Andrew Johnson as the type and representative. He concludes with a most scathing exposition of the jesuitism and unfairness of an article which appeared in the London Quarterly Review, in which the Government of the United States, and Mr. Johnson personally, are most unjustly assailed and misrepresented.

This book does not belong to the ephemeral literature of the times. It is no catch-penny concern; it is biography, and ought to be in every library. It appears at a very opportune time. During the excitement of the canvass for the ensuing fall elections, President Johnson's character and his policy of reconstruction will be thoroughly sifted and discussed. The public eye is turned to him; the public mind is anxious to learn all that concerns him—his past course and present position. This book will impart the very information required. Every friend of Andrew Johnson should read it that he may be armed at all points for his defence.—The enemies of President Johnson should also read it, unless unwilling to be disarmed of their prejudices against him.

The reader cannot fail to rise from the perusal of this volume without increased admiration of President Johnson, both as to intellectual power and as to the private virtues which adorn his character. In presenting his history and character as a model for imitation, and as an incentive to perseverance to the youth of the rising generation, the author is very happy and forcible in his illustrations. The book is written as it professes to be, from a "national standpoint," proving the author to be a "national man." It is written in good temper, and is entirely free from all party or sectional bias.

The author has seen fit to withhold his name from the public. He has in this done himself injustice. The publication of his name would have secured to him literary reputation, whilst the enlarged patriotic spirit which pervades the work, with the absence of everything like sectional or partisan intolerance, would have secured him from giving offence in any quarter, and from the assaults of ungenerous criticism.

Ex-Governor Vance will stump the State for Worth.—Norfolk Virginian.

Our Virginia cotemporary is mistaken. Gov. Vance is friendly to Gov. Worth, but, being unpardoned, he will take no active part in the canvas. Even were he pardoned, a necessary attention to his private interests would preclude a public connection with parties at present. He warmly endorses the contemplated National Convention at Philadelphia, but, outside of questions immediately affecting the condition of the South and the country, he takes no active part in politics.

Franklinton, North Carolina.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As you manifest an interest in everything which tends to throw light upon the material resources of the State, I hope you are equally concerned for the intellectual development of her children, and that you will permit me, through your columns, to call attention to the advantages of this place, and its immediate vicinity, for obtaining that mental and moral culture, which will qualify either sex to adorn any station in life which they may be called upon to occupy.

The schools at this place once enjoyed a large patronage from the Eastern Counties, and, so far as the merits of the Teachers are concerned, there is no reason why this should not be the case at present. Rev. G. W. Neal, A. M., has charge of the male Academy, and it would be superfluous for me to speak of his qualifications as an instructor. Suffice it to say, that he has had an experience of sixteen years in various schools and colleges in this State, Virginia and Florida.

In a literary point of view, Franklinton is centrally located. The village is directly on the R. & G. R. R., midway between Wake Forest and Kittrell's. It is the point where passengers leave the railroad for Louisburg, which is only nine miles distant. Thus it will be seen that parents and guardians can place their daughters or wards at either of those excellent institutions, Louisburg Female College or Kittrell's Springs Female College, while they can, at the same time, and with the same expense of travel, &c., leave their boys and young men at the Masonic school here, in charge of Prof. Neal.

The place is proverbial for its health, and if there are those who wish a healthy locality, where they can have the benefit of good schools for their children, there is ample room here.—Many refugees from the Eastern section of the State bought property here during the war; but, after the close of the struggle, they returned to their old homes, and now their property in this place and neighborhood can be bought on the most favorable terms.

Our Female Academy is in charge of Miss Pattie Ward, who is no doubt competent to give thorough instruction in all the branches she professes to teach.

About two miles from the village, there is an excellent school at the residence of Capt. S. D. Beves, in charge of Miss Fancette. From my knowledge of Capt. Beves, and what I have heard of the accomplishments of Miss F., this must be a very excellent school.

Thus it will be seen that we are abundantly blessed with seats of learning in our midst, and all that we need is the money to pay our way through.

This is a moral community. The temptations to vice are few and far between. We have two neat and commodious churches,—Baptist and Methodist. Dr. Wingate, of Wake Forest, is Pastor of the Baptist church, and, to my mind, he is one of the best preachers to whom I have listened for many a long day. His sermon on last Sunday was appropriate, eloquent, touching, yet simple and easy to comprehend.

Rev. J. H. Wheeler, long and favorably known throughout the N. C. Conference, for his deep piety, earnest preaching, and irreproachable life, has charge of the Methodist church. Here there is a desirable combination,—good schools, good churches, good preachers, good morals, and a healthy section.

The Question of Labor---Immigration.

WARREN CO., N. C., July 11.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is said that the planters act with less unanimity for the promotion of their interests than any other community.—There are, at this time, questions of grave moment—questions that lay fairs and the like in the shade—which farmers should take in their own hands and undertake to control. These are questions which concern themselves intimately, and should therefore be taken out of the hands of others, who care only for the pecuniary profit. One of these is the supply of labor. That labor should be abundant for the production of Southern staples is a matter of first necessity. It is not abundant now, and every one knows that the negro's instability of character, every day developing more and more, will make it hardly reliable.

The railroads are realizing the worthlessness of negro labor. About the wheat harvest, numbers left the R. & G. R. R., which is now repaired mainly by white men. It is more feasible for corporations to introduce foreign labor than for individuals. And should they so do, they would promote their own interests directly, and also indirectly, by vastly aiding the development of the State. For the negro has no acquisitiveness, and though an inordinate love of money is the root of all evil, yet, without thrift, no man is a benefit to society. We must have foreign labor, and we must have some systematic, organized plan of procuring it and of securing the right kind. Let every County have its Agricultural Society, and let every one of these send a delegate to a Chamber of Agriculture for the State. And then let competent and reliable agents be appointed to induce immigration. I, myself, have always been opposed to the introduction here of Germans and Irishmen; but sufficient inducements ought to be offered to encourage the immigration, especially, of Swedes, Swiss, English and Scotch laborers and artizans of every description.

Let our farmers take hold of this thing and control their own destinies, instead of waiting supinely for events to shape their ruin. I would propose that those counties which have already existing societies appoint delegates and invite others to do the like; that these select a committee of correspondence to inform themselves of the class of laborers willing to immigrate, the terms that can be made with them and the mode and expenses of transportation; in fine of all the minutiæ appertaining to the transaction, so that any farmer wanting white labor could make his requisition and be promptly and faithfully supplied by reliable agents. This mode of doing the business may have its objections but the scheme of systematic co-operation by agriculturists to furnish themselves and the country with foreign immigrants is, so far from being objectionable, a matter of urgent necessity and pregnant with vital results. In a review of Dr. Craven's Prison life of Mr. Davis, the Baltimore Sun thus truthfully speaks of our late President:

"The chief impression which the book makes is that the individual whom it portrays belongs to that order of men to whom truth and sincerity are sacred things, and in whose nature the principle of personal honor prevades every thought—that whatever were his errors they leaned to virtue's side—that meanness was a stranger to the bosom where noble instincts constantly dwelt, and that crime no less than cruelty were foreign to every impulse of his heart."

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Miss Francis A. Haywood's school commences its next session on Monday, 16th. inst.

Pulliam, Jones & Co. announce Venable's superior fine cut chewing Tobacco, and also a variety of Snuffs and smoking Tobacco.

SHAMEFUL OUTRAGE.—A most valuable cow, belonging to P. F. Pescud, Esq., of this City, and famous for her beauty and good qualities, being accidentally out of his lot, on Wednesday night, was wantonly shot and killed. Mr. P. had refused very extravagant offers for this animal and himself and family were greatly attached to her.

A negro, known as Jim Henderson, who had rented Pennington's kitchen and garden, in the neighborhood, has been arrested, and the evidence of his guilt is regarded as indisputable. But there is no redress for Mr. Pescud. How can persons or property be considered safe, when irresponsible and vicious negroes are allowed to carry and display fire arms, ad libitum?

THE LATE HON. GEO. E. BADGER.—We have heretofore announced that Gov. Graham's memorial oration upon the life and character of our late eminent fellow citizen, Mr. Badger, would be delivered on the 19th. inst., in the Commons Hall, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

We wish, in time, to throw out this suggestion: Let all our places of business be closed for a certain length of time on that morning, and let all our citizens unite in seizing so appropriate an occasion to pay a tribute of respect to the distinguished deceased. The city of Raleigh, to which he was so ardently attached and upon which he shed the lustre of his great name, will honor itself in paying honors to the memory of George E. Badger.

WE ARE indebted to Mr. W. G. Briggs, of the National Express Company, for Northern papers in advance of the mails.

WHO CAN BEAT THIS?—We have been presented by a lady-friend with the largest tomato we have ever seen,—grown in the garden of the Rev. Dr. Lacy, of this City. It measures 17½ inches around and weighs 31 ounces! It is indeed a vegetable curiosity.

WE ARE indebted to Pulliam, Jones & Co., for some samples of the "Sublime Fine Cut Chewing Tobacco," manufactured by James M. Venable, Petersburg, a full description of whose extensive Factory we published some days since. We pronounce it an excellent article,—superior to the celebrated "Solace."

NORTH CAROLINA R. R.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of N. C. R. R. was held in Hillsboro', on yesterday, at the Masonic Hall.

Dr. W. R. Holt presided over the meeting, and Messrs. R. S. Tucker and Alex. Wilson, Jr., acted as Secretaries.

The Directors, on the part of the State, as previously announced, are Hons. N. Boyden, Jos. Turner, Jr., Jno. A. Gilmer, and Messrs. Robt. Strange, B. B. Roberts, Jno. Berry, Wm. C. Means and Jno. A. Moore.

Messrs. Thomas Webb, John L. Morehead, D. A. Davis and Geo. W. Mordecai were elected Directors on the part of the Stockholders.

The following Committees were chosen:

Finance Committee.—Messrs. R. S. Tucker, Rufus Barringer and W. A. Caldwell.

To ratify Proxies at next meeting.—Messrs. Jesse Lindsay, Ralph. Gorrell and C. G. Yates.

Committee of Inspection.—Messrs. Wm. Murdock, W. R. Holt and J. M. Morehead.

A meeting of the Directors was held in the Masonic Hall at Hillsboro', this morning, at 10 o'clock.

We learn by a telegram (for which we are indebted to the Southern Express Co's. telegraph) that Thomas Webb, Esq., was elected President; P. B. Ruffin, Treasurer; E. Wilkes, Superintendent, and F. A. Stagg, Secretary.

OUR DEAD IN VIRGINIA.—The ladies of Spotsylvania County, Va., with the same beautiful devotion that is distinguishing the sex throughout the South, have organized themselves into a Memorial Association, the object of which is to rescue from neglect and desecration the remains of those of our gallant soldiers who fell in the battles of Fredericksburg, Wilderness, Chancellorsville and Spotsylvania C. H. It is intended, as far as possible, to identify and remove the remains to a Cemetery, the site of which will be selected during the Summer, and it is desired to make their last resting place in every way worthy of the precious dust it shall contain. To this end contributions are solicited throughout the South, and all, at least, who have friends or kindred sleeping on those immortal fields, will doubtless respond to the appeal.

Mrs. Dr. A. J. Boulware is President of the Association, to whom all contributions, and communications requesting information, should be addressed. Capt. C. J. Iredell, of this City, is also authorized to received donations, and will take pleasure in forwarding them.

For the Sentinel.

SOLDIERS, from Wake Co., of the late C. S. A., are requested to assemble at the Capitol square, in Raleigh, on Wednesday next, July 18th., for the purpose of re-mounding the graves of our late brothers in arms.

The young men of Raleigh are expected, each, to bring either a shovel, spade or pick.

The young men of the county, whose duties at this busy season preclude their attendance at this time, are expected to be present in October next, when these remains will be removed, and slabs, &c., arranged.

It is the last thing we can do for the bodies of our beloved comrades, who died that we should be free; the memory of their noble efforts we will always cherish fresh and pure in our hearts, so long as we are capable of appreciating heroic deeds and noble aspirations; a full attendance is therefore desired.

COMRADE.

From the National Republican of the 11th.

Philadelphia National Convention.

In many of the States active steps have been taken to have full and able delegations to the proposed National Union Convention at Philadelphia, August 14. In others there seems to be some misunderstanding as to the manner in which delegates are to be chosen. With a view to give the proper information, a circular, emanating from the National Union Committee, has just been issued and sent into all the States and Territories. The indications are that this Convention will be one of the most imposing and important assemblages ever held in this country.

The circular recommends that there be sent from each State four delegates at large and two from each congressional district who favor the principles set forth in the call, to be taken from the supporters of Lincoln and Johnson in 1864, and a like number from their opponents. Also, four delegates from each Territory and four from the District of Columbia. In those States whereof a portion of the people were lately in rebellion, a corresponding number of delegates may be chosen by the people generally who accept the principles stated in the call.—It is not intended, however, that these suggestions shall interfere with any arrangements already made for the selection of delegates. It is left entirely to the political organizations in the different States and districts that concur in the principles of the call to decide whether they will choose their delegates by joint or separate meetings, or by their executive committees. The paramount object of the movement is to bring into a great national conference from all parts of our distracted country wise and patriotic men, who may devise a plan of political action calculated to restore national unity, fraternity, and harmony, and secure to an afflicted people that which is so sincerely desired by all good men—the practical blessings of an enduring peace.

The Constitutional Amendment,—It Passes the Tennessee Senate,—Efforts to Stave off Action in the House.

Special dispatch to the New York Tribune

WASHINGTON, July 9.

Col. Stokes, of Tennessee, has received information from Nashville of a very encouraging character. The State Senate has ratified the amendment, and they lack but four of a quorum in the House, with a large majority of those present in favor of it. Steps are being taken to secure the presence of the stay aways, and seven of them are certain of being captured by the sergeant-at-arms, who has orders to bring them in dead or alive.

Some of the recalcitrant members are leaving the State to evade arrest and to attend the Philadelphia Convention.

[We suppose the history of the world could hardly afford a parallel to the infamous outrage which the Radicals are trying to commit upon the people of Tennessee. Language is inadequate to express the feelings which are aroused in the breast of every friend of civil liberty by such high-handed acts. Yet Greely sees in them nothing to condemn.]

The National Union Convention.

The conservative papers throughout the country continue, with great unanimity, to approve the plan of the Philadelphia Convention.

In Louisiana the Democrats and Conservatives have held a caucus and agreed to call a State Convention to appoint delegates to the National Convention at Philadelphia.

Tennessee is moving vigorously for the appointment of delegates to the Philadelphia National Union Convention.

Missouri has already appointed them, and some have been appointed from Indiana.

In Washington the National Union Club and the Democratic National Club have coalesced, and publicly proclaimed that they will work together in the fall campaign.

The Union State Convention, to be held at Indianapolis on the 19th, will appoint delegates to Philadelphia.

The Louisville Journal strongly urges on the conservative men of Kentucky the propriety of at once responding, and promises the most gratifying results.

The Richmond Times of yesterday, in a temperate and well reasoned article, presents the argument in favor of the Convention, and endorses the proposition for the appointment of delegates by the Presidents of the late Democratic and Whig State Central Committees.

The Boston Post calls upon the conservative men of New England to send their ablest men to Philadelphia, and to choose as delegates gentlemen who will, by their positions and characters, give an ample guaranty of their true nationality.—Petersburg Index.

The Next Governor.

So far as we are informed on the subject, the objections to the administration of Gov. Worth are as few as would probably have been urged against any other in his position, and we see no reason why the people of North Carolina shall not again honor him with their confidence We regret to see, on the part of some of our fellow-citizens, a disposition to bring out another candidate, whose record on the war will probably accord more fully with the sentiments of the majority of the citizens of the State.

While it is known to the readers of this journal that we stand to-day where we stood two years ago, and where we shall always stand, and while we shall ever point with pride to the part we took in the war, and never cease to regret the failure of our cause, we must be permitted to discountenance every attempt at partizan warfare, no matter in what form it presents itself. —Wilson Carolinian.

The Charleston Habeas Corpus Case.

AUGUSTA, July 10.—In return to the writ of habeas corpus granted by the United States District Court in the case of Michael Castello, confined at Charleston jail, the officer in command refused to obey, saying that the prisoner was held under the President's proclamation of September 15th., 1863. He also produced an order from Secretary Stanton instructing him not to deliver up the prisoner on a writ of habeas corpus. The court granted a continuance of the case for another day. General Sickles made the following endorsement on the writ of attachment served on him by the United States Marshal at Charleston for contempt: "In compliance with the orders of superior authority, I declined to be arrested on the process."

Gen. Sickles received the marshal courteously, but told him that he had telegraphed to Washington for instructions. The reply of Secretary Stanton endorsed Gen. Sickles's course. This action is taken in accordance with President Lincoln's proclamation of 1863. Judge Bryan has orded all the proceedings to be laid before the President.

Governor Hamilton, of Texas, has drawn up a call for a Convention of Southern Unionists, to meet at Washington in September. He calls the Philadelphia Convention "another rebel invasion of the North."

Additional Foreign News.

NEW YORK, July 12, P. M.

Consols closed at London on the evening of the 30th. at 86⅜a86¾. 5-20's 65¼a65½.

According to the Prussian reports, they defeated the Austrians at Nachard on the 27th, at Frantenau on the 28th., and at Munchingratz, in that vicinity, on the same day.

On the other hand, the latest Austrian telegram gives the following:

"Pardubitz, June 29.—The Prussians were completely defeated by the Austrians, under Gablentz, yesterday,—leaving behind one-third of their army killed and wounded. They withdrew to Prussian territory, towards Glatz. The Austrian cavalry, under Gen. Edelheim, drove them out of Jacin to Twenan, and compelled them to evacuate Melink and Leipa and retreat. Prussian loss enormous. Prussians engaged were of the army of the Elbe."

The Prussians on the Silesian frontier were commanded by the crown Prince, Frederick William. The Federal army was on the point of marching from Frankfort, and a battle was anticipated at Cracow.

An Austrian dispatch says that the Prussians attacked Osweinten on the 28th, and were repulsed with heavy loss.

The Austrians acknowledge that the Prussians have destroyed their Railroads and seriously interrupted communication with various points.

Further Rumored Resignations in the Cabinet,—Important Order from Gen. Grant, &c.

WASHINGTON, July 12, P. M.

It is rumored that Speed and Harlan have tendered their resignations.

It is alleged that there is a fraudulent issue of stock of the Washington and Alexandria R. R. to the amount of $300,000. It was used in connection with the defunct Merchant's National Bank, and one New York firm advanced $100,000 on said stock.

Lt. Gen. Grant has issued an order, directing all Department, District and Post Commanders, in the States lately insurgent, to arrest all persons who have been, or may hereafter be, charged with the commission of crimes and offences, against officers, agents, citizens and inhabitants of the United States, irrespective of color, in cases where the civil authorities have failed or neglected, or are unable, to arrest and bring such parties to trial,—and to detain them in military confinement, until such time as a proper judicial tribunal may be ready and willing to try them.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 12, P. M.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyse the bowels, must give precedence to the m... who relies hereon and appeals, with from one to two ... his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent cases with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics in the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the ... efficacious power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. Wounds or Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

A BOON TO THE SICK AND THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever.

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and expel disease, that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate thus, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will no harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed dose to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions ... found in the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with ... most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably ... are the following Diseases.

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

CHILLS, FEVER AND AGUE

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of

One Pill Three Times A Day,

before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with me and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

$2 PER BOX;

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St., New York.

CAUTION.

It is Effect is Miraculous!

IT is an entirely new scientific discovery combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom.

We have much confidence in its merits, and are so sure it will do all we claim for it that we offer if the Sicilian Hair Renewer does not give satisfaction in all cases when used in strict accordance with our instructions.

$1,000 REWARD

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

has proved itself to be the most perfect preparation for the Hair ever offered to the public.

It is a vegetable compound, and contains no injurious properties whatever.

It is not a Dye, it strikes at the roots and fills the glands with new life and coloring matter.

It will restore Gray Hair to its original Color.

It will keep the Hair from falling out.

It cleanses the scalp, and makes the Hair soft, lustrous, and silken.

It is a splendid Hair-Dressing.

No person old or young, should fail to use it. It is recommended and used by the first Medical authority.

☞ Ask for Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer and take no other.
